

PROFILE OF JOSEPHINE TEO

Josephine is a corporate trainer with some 20 years of working experience in the public and private sectors, including government, education, food and beverage, internet and IT. A marketing and corporate communications specialist, Josephine's work experience included events management, communication strategies, training and development, education, strategic planning, industry development and promotion, branding, portal development, crisis management, marketing, and executive coaching.

Josephine has lived and worked globally. Now based in Singapore as a corporate trainer and executive coach, she facilitates training programmes for senior management to operational-level staff of local and multi-national corporations in the Asia Pacific region, and coaches professionals and executives for career progression and enhancements. A strong believer of how effective professionals can ensure critical long-term organisational growth and success, Josephine is passionate to share her knowledge and skills with participants of her workshops.

With a perpetual quest for knowledge, Josephine has a Masters of Business Administration from Richard Ivey School of Business, University of Western Ontario, Canada; Bachelor of Fine Arts (Film and Television) from the prestigious Tisch School of the Arts, New York University, USA; Diploma with Merit in Mass Communication from Ngee Ann Polytechnic, Singapore; and Specialist Diploma in Sports and Exercise Science from Republic Polytechnic, Singapore.

Professionally, Josephine is a Certified Facilitator of Brian Tracy Programmes, Certified Business Coach of FocalPoint International, and Certified Facilitator of DISC. She also has a Diploma in Adult and Continuing Education and Advanced Certificate in Training and Assessment from the Singapore Workforce Development Agency.