

PROFILE OF MS IRINA MIU

Irina Miu is an Executive Coach and Senior Trainer. She has a PhD in “Creating and Developing an Organization through Coaching”. In 2009, she has got her certification as Associate Certified Coach by the International Coach Association. Irina has been active in the training and coaching area for over 10 years contributing to the development of over 4,500 people from Europe, Australia and Asia. Irina has a background in human resources, business administration and supply chain management.

In her training and coaching practice, Irina uses challenging and thought-provoking approaches working with examples in order to underline the practical side of the content while using the displayed behaviours to build on different directions and invite a deeper exploration of the subject matter.

She has developed the Four Nested Levels of Responsibility Model for setting objectives, published several articles on coaching and is the co-author for a book on project management.
